Program

We are all treaty people and to date, the treaty has been interpreted from one side.

This professional learning opportunity aims to teach the oral understanding of the making of Treaty No. 6 and to learn the intention of treaty applied to current day constructs within the Canadian state.

We will also investigate and consider our responsibilities to the spirit and intent of treaty.

This learning opportunity is being offered through curriculum implementation funding from Alberta Education.

Presenters

Diana Steinhauer

Dr. Diana Steinhauer, Cree, from Saddle Lake Cree Nation in Treaty No. 6 Territory, is an educator with 30 years of experience in teaching, curriculum development, and administration in K-12 schools and post-secondary institutions. Most importantly, she is a mother and first teacher of her two children, Alexis and Ty. She currently splits her time into two roles; as k?-n?k?napistahk at Treaty Governance at Onion Lake Cree Nation and as the Treaty, Language, and Culture Coordinator at Tribal Chiefs Education Foundation. Recognizing the value and work of iyiniw pim?tisiwin (Cree life) Diana's work as a change agent in language, education, and research is grounded upon her late father's adage, pim?tisîtotetân kimiyikowisiwininaw, 'Let us live life the way our Creator intended us to live'.
