Session Location:

Online
, Online, AB

Registration Fee:

Free

Audience: Educational Assistants, Teachers, Administrators, Jurisdictional Leadership, Trustees, Parents, Education Partners/Stakeholders, Community Members

Grade Level:About the Session:

As teachers engage with the Teaching Quality Standard, they will begin to explore a variety of resources to support them in building their foundational knowledge as it relates to First Nations, Métis and Inuit. This webinar strives to support teachers to access already existing and vetted resources they can use for their learning journey towards reconciliation and foundational knowledge building.

This learning opportunity is being offered through a grant from Alberta Education.

About the Presenter(s):Shannon Loutitt

Shannon is a Div. 2 teacher on secondment from Fort McMurray Public School District. Shannon grew up in Fort McMurray learning about her Metis heritage and when she was 5 years old she said she wanted to be the first Native lady Prime Minister. Although that might not happen, she is excited to be working with the ATA on the Walking Together Project to help teachers learn more about the diverse cultures, histories, and contemporary realities of Indigenous peoples in Canada.
