Program

The LNES Regional Education Stakeholder Engagement Committee is intended to provide an opportunity and platform to bring Education Partner/Stakeholders together to share information, updates and areas of need support that are available through the LNES. This is an advisory committee with no decision making authority.

Presenters

Charlie Kraig

Charlie is an educational consultant for Learning Network Educational Services. Experience as a classroom teacher (Gr 112), school-based coordinator (LA/SS and Inclusive Education), and vice principal (K-8 school), helps her craft unique professional learning opportunities for educators. Important in the work we do as designers of professional learning is using the same teaching strategies and tools that teachers can use in their classrooms while honoring them as competent adult learners. Charlie is a Learning Transfer Endorsed Educator as well as the Regional Network Chair of @WomenEdAlberta (part of the global #WomenEd network supporting and encouraging women in formal and informal leadership positions). She is passionate about instructional leadership and improving teacher practice for all learners' benefit.

Registration Notes

Once you have registered for a professional learning session, our system automatically generates and sends a 'Confirmation of registration email'. This 'automatic response' will be sent to the email address you enter at the time of registration'. If the workshop you registered for is Online, you will find a link to connect you to the workshop in your confirmation email. If you do NOT receive a confirmation email within 24 hours of registering, please check your Spam/Junk/Trash file. If you do not receive a confirmation email, please contact celine.zevola@learning-network.org
