Program

Ready to take the leap and do some learning and planning with the new outcomes? Join us to talk about planning, assessment, and quality instruction in the literacy classroom. Sample processes and structures will be shared for teachers to make use of in their own contexts.

K-3 teachers are welcome to continue to work with Lana (during their classroom time) from 2:50-3:30 for any questions or clarifications they require in this subject area.

Presenters

Lana Lane

Lana Lane is an Independent Literacy Consultant. She resides on an acreage outside of Canada's only border city, Lloydminster, Saskatchewan. She has been a classroom teacher of Pre-K-Gr.2, an Instructional Literacy Coach K-12, and currently contracts with the Learning Network Educational Services and Learning Disabilities Association of Alberta. She has spent many years studying the five essential elements of effective reading instruction; Phonemic Awareness, Phonics, Fluency, Vocabulary and Comprehension and enjoys facilitating workshops across the province. She is a dynamic speaker with a true passion for literacy.
